

Application for tax remission (and automatic reviewed)

If your income is low, you have little savings, and you are unable to pay the Leeuwarden municipal tax, you might qualify for remission (i.e. cancellation of your tax debt).

You can apply for remission if you are living on a low income, such as a social assistance benefit, student grant or state-pension benefit.

It is always worth applying for remission. The application process is quick and you could save a lot of money.

Complete this form to find out whether or not you need to pay the tax. All the details must be completed for your application to be processed.

What happens after we receive your application for remission?

You will receive confirmation from the Leeuwarden municipality stating that we will process your application.

You do not need to do anything yourself until you receive another message from the Leeuwarden municipality. This will either state that you have been granted remission or that we require additional information to continue processing your application.

More information on remission is available at www.leeuwarden.nl/kwijtschelding.
